

Clinical research industry, in the last decade, has become a much sought after career opportunity. There is an unmet need to achieve excellence in clinical research education and training by implementing a carefully designed curriculum, run by experienced faculty from the industry, and exposure to practical aspects of clinical research.

Medica Superspecialty Hospital, Kolkata, one of the largest integrated healthcare delivery providers in eastern India, in collaboration with Clinical Research Centre, Jadavpur University announces a certificate course “Pharmacovigilance in Clinical Research”

Course Highlights:

- Total Duration: 9 months
  - Theory: 6 months (Jadavpur University and Medica Superspecialty Hospital)
  - Practical : 3 months (Medica Superspecialty Hospital)
- Classes on weekends (working professionals can easily attend)
- Course fee – Rs 60,000/- (sixty thousand only)
- Course begins :21/01/2012
- For any further information contact :
  - Dr. Subhrojyoti Bhowmick – +91-9830204863
  - Ms Priyanka Gupta - +91- 9830311420
  - Dr T K Chatterjee (Jadavpur University)– +91-9836066927